

Shiloh Museum Events

Through January 22, 2011. All Dressed Up, an exhibit of men's, women's, and children's finery.

Through December 18. Down by the Old Mill Stream, a photo exhibit featuring Northwest Arkansas grist mills.

Through September 18. Answering the Call, an exhibit on the history of the Springdale Fire Department.

September 11, 10:00 a.m.- 2:00 p.m. 33rd Ozark Quilt Fair, with antique and new quilts for show and sale. Musical entertainment by Shout Lulu.

September 15, noon. "American Indian Rock Art in Northwest Arkansas," a program by Dr. George Sabo III, archeologist with the Arkansas Archeological Survey and professor of anthropology at the University of Arkansas.

October 4-March 26, 2011. The Music of Our Lives, an exhibit on the role of music in the lives of Ozark folks.

October 4, 7:00 p.m. Informational meeting about the Arkansas Civil War Sesquicentennial Commission's plans for observing the 150th anniversary of the American Civil War between 2011 and 2015.

October 5, 7:00 p.m. Premiere of Ozark - A Celebration in Song, a documentary music video featuring the lives of everyday Ozarkers. A collaboration between folk duo Still on the Hill and the Jones Television Network, funded by the Arkansas Natural Heritage Commission.

October 20, noon. "Collecting Folk Song: An Art AND a Science?" a program by Professor Chalon Ragsdale of the University of Arkansas Department of Music.

November 6, 10:00 a.m. "The Mountain Dulcimer in the Ozarks," a hands-on workshop by Bob Madison, who will discuss dulcimer origins, repertoire, and migration to Arkansas. Participants will have an opportunity to learn the noter and drone style of playing.

November 17, noon. "Madison County Mysteries, Solved and Unsolved," a program by Joy Russell, president of the Madison County Genealogical and Historical Society.

November 20, 2:00 p.m. Program and booksigning by acclaimed nature photographer Tim Ernst.

December 4. "Holidays are for the Birds!" with Northwest Arkansas Audubon Society members Joe Neal and Lynn Sciumbato. At 11:00 a.m., Joe will present a slide program on "Winter Birds in Northwestern Arkansas." At 1:00 p.m., Lynn and some of the residents at Morning Star Wildlife Rehabilitation Center will show and tell us about life as a bird.

December 21-April 16, 2011. Bumper Crop: The Apple Industry in Northwest Arkansas, a photo exhibit examining the rise and fall of the local apple industry.

2011

January 15. "Cabin Fever Reliever," the museum's annual celebration of the New Year.

January 19, noon. "Arkansas's Apple Roots," a program by Dr. Roy Rom, emeritus professor of horticulture at the University of Arkansas, and owner of Rom Family Orchards in Fayetteville.

February 1, 7:00 p.m. "Leave Town and Never Return: Racial Cleansing in Arkansas," a program by Guy Lancaster, editor for the Encyclopedia of Arkansas History and Culture. Presented in conjunction with TheatreSquared's new play, Sundown Town, which runs February 3-20.

February 7-January 16, 2012. Working Dawn to Dusk, an exhibit exploring the lives of Ozark homesteaders.

April 11-September 17. In-Car-Nation, an exhibit on the importance of automobiles in Northwest Arkansas during the 1900s.

April 19-August 20. Settling the Ozarks, a photo exhibit featuring images that document the skills needed by Ozark pioneers.

August 23-December 17. Rest in Peace, a photo exhibit on death and dying in the Arkansas Ozarks of the 1800s and early 1900s.

08/31/2010

Shiloh Museum of Ozark History • 118 W. Johnson Avenue, Springdale • 750-8165
Open Monday - Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm • Free Admission • www.springdalear.gov/shiloh